Important Year-End Updates

2020 was a long, difficult year for many. As the year comes to a close, many are eagerly looking forward to turning the page on the calendar to 2021, and to the hope that a new year inevitably brings.

While 2020 taught us that there are some things we may not expect, there are still some changes we know and can prepare for. To help your staffing business get ready for the new year, we've assembled a list of important tax and minimum wage changes for 2021.

Seventy-eight percent of US workers are living paycheck to paycheck. Timing of payroll can cause employees to struggle with making ends meet. Many resort to requesting a payroll advance or short-term loan, placing them in an uncomfortable situation. Join TRICOM and rapid! PayCard to learn how on-demand pay can empower your employees and what unexpected results could benefit employers.

Did You Know? Enhanced Credit Card Security Implemented

To maximize security for both your company and your customers, TRICOM has implemented an enhanced level of credit card security, which began on November 30, 2020. Similar to the new Click2PayNow site, we've developed a user-friendly website for your customers to enter their credit card and remit information at their convenience.

TRICOM employees in portfolio management and accounts receivable will be available to answer any questions. Please feel free to contact us at any time.
